Evaluation comments:

Great session! It was nice to have department leadership there to give tips.

I am thankful for the opportunity to speak with faculty that recently either had portfolios reviewed or recently reviewed portfolios.

I don't think some of the participants (myself included) were very prepared to discuss the T and P process. Maybe some dedicated time for "reading" or prep in the future or something similar?

It feels like this should be a yearly workshop to help tenure-track faculty stay on schedule.
